Grosser Preis des Schweizer Weins
Gran Premio del Vino Svizzero
Swiss Wine Award

---

SWISS WINE AWARD.
THE ORIGINAL. SINCE 2004.

Zurich/Sierre, 6. Oktober 2023

Grand Prix du Vin Suisse: Kellerei Leukersonne from Valais has been named “Swiss Winery of the Year 2023”!

More than 560 representatives of the Swiss wine industry, politicians, members of the press and wine enthusiasts came together on Friday 6 October 2023 at the Kursaal in Bern for the annual highlight of the Swiss wine scene, the 17th Grand Prix du Vin Suisse gala evening event. The prestigious title of Swiss Winery of the Year was once again claimed by Valais, going to the Leukersonne estate in Susten.

Bern, Friday 6 October 2023. The excellent 2022 vintage has provided a boost for the 17th edition of the Grand Prix du Vin Suisse. The most important Swiss wine competition, organised jointly by the VINUM magazine and the VINEA association, recorded nearly 400 more wines than in the previous year, for a total of 2,740 bottles.

The winery Kellerei Leukersonne in Susten, run by Damian and Fabienne Seewer and by Jörg and Karin Seewer, took the prestigious title of Swiss Winery of the Year.

Valais dominated the competition and won eight of the total of 15 categories. Exceptional Vaud winemaker Jean-François Neyroud-Fonjallaz won the Chasselas category for the third time in a row. For the Pinot Noir, the winner's crown went to the canton of Neuchâtel and Cave des Lauriers in Cressier. L'Azienda Agraria Cantonale di Mezzana, in Coldrerio, won the Merlot category for Ticino.

Valais dominates the 15 categories despite national balance

Valais, Switzerland's largest winemaking canton in terms of size, put its best foot forward in this year's competition by winning eight of the total of 15 categories. But German-speaking Switzerland and Neuchâtel also distinguished themselves with two wins apiece, alongside Vaud, Geneva, Schaffhausen and Ticino each with a single category win.

Although the Chardonnay grape gained its own separate category for the first time this year, varietal white wines remained the strongest category at the GPVS. Chasselas also gained ground, overtaking Pinot Noir to become the second-largest category.

Rosés and Blancs de Noirs similarly increased their numbers.

The GPVS reflects Swiss winemaking. The cantons with the largest vineyard area also supplied the largest contingents of wines submitted, such as the large Valais region at around 38%, and Vaud with around 21% of the overall wines. However, a few things have changed since last year: Geneva, for example, increased with an 8% proportion, and brought more wines to this year's GPVS than Ticino did. And compared with the size of its winegrowing region, the canton of Zurich presented a comparatively high number of wines for evaluation.

In a celebratory atmosphere, guests were able to taste the best wines that Switzerland has to offer and enjoy a festive menu alongside the wines' creators.
